Read and Reflect.

As Jas. P. Coburn was the only one who voted against the surrender of the Charter of the L. C. & S. C. Railroad company to the Penn'a Central, of all the Directors of that Co., and then all our people favored that course, and now all look to the Penn'a Co. to aid them in building the road, we do not see exactly why Coburn is villified and abused by our so-called Democratic contemporaries. The Atlantic and Great Western failed, and the Directors on the East end, having been influenced by their desire to secure the Railroad and carriage bridge to Lewisburg, having a majority, did surrender the Charter to the Penn'a company, but did not sell it. Coburn opposed the surrender and voted against it even alone.

We assert that he has expended more money in travelling along the line of this road to secure rights of way, get subscriptions, and aid in putting the enterprise forward than any one now living in Pennsvalley.

We assert, moreover, that J. G. Moyer has done nothing in aid of the enterprise, and that he owns as much real estate, and is as much interested as Coburn.

We say in addition, that J. G. Moyer has not brains enough to be of any material service to the road, either at home or at Harrisburg.

We say that all he can do is to take stock, and that he is too niggardly to do.

We say that the Watchman lies, and the Reporter plays monkey for that organ, and hands around the libels instead of the cap. We give these so-called *news*papers fair notice that unless they have something better to urge against Coburn and Cadwallader, Hess and Butts, Rote and Barr, we shall elect them all, and that, too, by the votes of independent Democrats.

As to Curtin, he is entirely safe, as no great number of Democrats ever thought of electing Morrison, though they felt like flattering the old man with a nomination, on which he had set his heart.

A few days since it was heralded through-out Pennsylvania that a large party of New Yorkers and Jersey men had "screnaded Asa Packer" at his aristocratic residence in Mauch Chunk, and afterwards were shown through the handsomely furnished parlors of the Democratic candidate for Governor. In ordinary times there would have been no objection to all this; but in the present case it proves conclusively that the New Yorkers are deeply interested in Packer's election. The New York shareholders in corporations in this State have for some years been striving to have the State tax removed from their stocks, on the ground of non-residence; but our State authorities have held them to it for the good reason that as they draw their profits from this State they should assist in paying the State expenses.—Asa Packer's business connections are principally with those New York capitalists; they hold a large amount of stock in his Lehigh Valley railroad, and in the large coal companies in the Lehigh country, which he controls.

The coal transported from Pennsylvania over the Lehigh Valley railroad to New York pays at the present time FOUR CENTS ON EVERY TON OF COAL. This tax was laid on foreign corporations in lieu of the STATE TAX ON FARM LANDS, and if it is removed, which will be done as sure as Packer is elected, the farmers and poor lot holders of Pennsylvania will again be compelled to pay a STATE TAX ON THEIR HOMES and every foot of ground they may possess.

For the purpose of accomplishing their object, New York repeaters will again be shipped over here to vote for Packer. They have already been traced to Philadelphia, and it behooves every honest voter to watch every newcomer that moves into his neighborhood. Let none but honest voters be allowed a ballot at the next election!

Asa Packer, the Democratic candidate for Governor, calls upon his followers to deny the right of suffrage to the colored men of Pennsylvania, while the whole body of the Democratic party of Mississippi are supporting a colored man for Secretary of State.

It will be an evil day when money makes a man Governor or President. It may work on a small scale, but Pennsylvania will prefer a man of moderate means and aim to a grasping millionaire.

Digest of the Registry Law.

I. DUTIES OF ASSESSORS.

By section 1, of the Registration Act, each assessor is required to take up the transcript, or list of taxable residents within his district, furnished him by the commissioners of the county under the provisions of the act of April 15, 1854, section 8, relating to the assessment of taxes.

In almost every district names will be found on this list of transcript, of persons who are not legal voters. It is made the duty of each assessor to commence the revision of this list on the first Monday of June in each year. He is required,

1. To strike from this list the name of every person who is known by him to have died, or removed from his district, since the last previous assessement, or in other words, since the said list was made out.

2. He shall also strike from the said list the names of all such persons as shall have been made known to him to have died or removed from the district.

3. He shall add to the same list the names of such persons as he shall know to be qualified voters, and who shall be known by him to have removed into the district since the last previous assessment.

4. He shall also add to such list the names of such persons, qualified voters, as shall be made known to him to have removed into said district since the last previous assessment.

Under this 4th article it is proper to remark that assessors should add to the list the names of no person not known to them without satisfactory evidence that such persons had not only moved into the district since the last previous assessment, but also that they were legal voters.

5. He shall also add to the said list the names of all persons who shall make claims to him to be qualified voters in his district.

And here again under this 5th article, it is proper to say that the assessor should not add to his list the name of any person making claim to him to be a qualified voter in his district if the assessor knows him to be either a non-resident of the district, or, if a resident, not be a legal voter. And if the person making such claim be wholly unknown to the assessor, it is his duty to require of the person so claiming to have his name added to the list, clear and satisfactory proof, both of his residence within the district, and of his legal right to vote.

6. So soon as the assessor shall have completed the revision of his list in the manner before stated, it is his duty to take his list, so revised, and visit every dwelling house in his district, and ascertain, by careful inquiry, if any person whose name still remains on his list has died or removed from the district, and, if so, to strike such name from the list. He will also carefully inquire so as to ascertain whether any qualified voter resides in his district whose name is not on the list, and if so, to add such name to his list. The assessor should be careful to add no name to his list without being fully satisfied, either from his own personal knowledge, or from satisfactory evidence, that the person whose name is so added to the list is a legal voter, and a bona fide resident of the district.

7. In all cases of the addition of a name to his list by the assessor, he shall assess a tax forthwith to such person; and the assessor shall, in all such cases, ascertain by inquiry, upon what ground the person so assessed claims to be a voter.

From this provision of the act it will be at once seen the duty of the assessor is to see personally, in all cases of additions to the list, every person whom he registers within his district. He should register the name of no person, at the instance or request of a third party, but only at the instance of the person to be registered himself, and then only upon the personal knowledge of the assessor of the applicant's right to register, or upon sufficient evidence of such right.

8. Upon the completion of the registration, the assessor is to prepare an alphabetical list of the white freemen, above twenty-one years of age, claiming to be qualified voters in his district, and opposite each name he shall state whether such alleged voter is or is not a housekeeper, and if a housekeeper, he shall note the street, and number of his house, if lying in a town where the houses are numbered, or the names of the streets, alleys or court, if in a town where the houses are not numbered.

If the person registered be not a housekeeper, the assessor will note upon his list of voters the place of boarding of the person registered, and the name of the person with whom he boards, and in all cases he will note the occupation of the person for whom he is working. He will also write opposite the name of each person registered the word "voter."

9. No assessor should register as a person claiming to vote by reason of having naturalized, until such person exhibits to him his certificate of naturalization, unless such person shall have been a voter in such district for five consecutive years next preceding such registration.

10. The name of every person registered by reason of naturalization shall be marked with the letter "N." But if the person has only declared his intention to become a citizen, intending to be naturalized before the next election, the name shall be marked "D. I."

11. When the person registered claims to vote because of his being between the ages of twenty one and twenty-two, the assessor, at the time of registering him, should write opposite his name the word "age."

12. If the person registered has moved into the district to reside, since the last general election, the assessor should place the letter "R" opposite his name.

13. Upon the completion of the list of registration and assessment by the assessor, it is made his duty, by the second section of the act, forthwith to return the same to the commissioners of the county, who should cause duplicate copies of the said list, with the observations and explanations, to be made as soon as practicable, which duplicate copies they are to place in the hands of the assessor, whose duty it is made to put one copy thereof on the door of, or on the house where the election of the district is required to be held, and to retain the other in his possession for the inspection of any voter in the district who may desire to see the same.

14. It is further made the duty of each assessor, from time to time, to add, on the personal application of any one claiming the right to vote, the name of such claimant, marking opposite the name "C. V.," meaning, thereby, that the person claims a right to vote, and immediately to assess such person with a tax, noting, as in all other cases, his occupation, residence, whether a boarder or housekeeper; if a boarder, with whom he boards, and whether naturalized or designing to be naturalized.

15. Any person so claiming to be assessed and registered, who has been, or claims to have been naturalized, shall, at the time he applies to be assessed, exhibit to the assessor his certificate of naturalization; and if he claims that he designs to be naturalized before the next election, he shall exhibit the certificates of his declaration of intentions.

16. No assessment or registration of any names shall be made within ten days next before any election, by any assessor, under a penalty of fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding three months, or both such fine and imprisonment.

17. After the assessments have been completed, on the tenth day before the second Tuesday in October, in each year, (and the same before each presidential election,) the assessor shall, on the Monday immediately following, make a return to the county commissioners of the names of all persons assessed by him since his previous return.

II. Duties of County Commissioners.

1. It is made the duty of the county commissioners to furnish the assessors with the list of taxables or transcript required by the eighth section of the act of April 15, 1834.

2. Upon the return by the assessors of the assessments and additional assessments and registrations by the assessors, they are required to have prepared and furnish to the assessors duplicate copies thereof.

3. It is also their duty to furnish to the election officers a full and correct copy of the assessments containing the names of all persons returned by the assessors of the respective districts as resident taxables in said district, together with the necessary election blanks.

III. Duties of Election Officers.

1. It is the duty, under the registration law, to reject the votes offered by all persons whose names are not found on the assessment or registration lists furnished to them by the county commissioners, unless such persons are able to make proof of their right to vote, as required by the fourth section.

2. It shall be the duty of the election officers, in case any person offers to vote whose name is not found upon the proper assessment list, to require such persons to make proof of his right to vote, by producing at least one qualified voter of the district as a witness to his residence within the district at least ten days next preceding such election. Such witness will be required, by the board, to take and subscribe a written or printed affidavit to the facts stated by him, which affidavit shall define, clearly, the place of residence of the person claiming to vote.

They shall also require a written or printed affidavit to be taken and subscribed by the party to vote, stating, to the best of his knowledge and belief, when and where he was born; that he is a citizen of this Commonwealth, and of the United States, and the length of [illegible] he has resided in this [illegible] that he did [illegible] for the [illegible]

Story for the Little Boys.

We believe no apology is required for the naration of the following amusing scene in Pennsvalley. The droll circumstances—prominence of one of the characters, and earnest manner of the other, combine to give the affair a dash of ludicrousness not often reached in the highways and lanes of Pennsvalley. One party to the transaction was a no less distinguished gentleman than Dr. Wilson, father of the wife of our very able Minister to Russia, ex-Governor Curtin. The other character was a small 12 year-old boy belonging to the International Hippo Comique Circus. The provocation for the dialogue arose in this wise. A small trick pony had escaped from the small boy, and made off at the utmost stretch of his short legs into this lane.—The small boy was detailed to capture him, and re-join the company. It was warm; the boy ditto; and his expressions of condemnation of the reprehensible conduct of the pony were very heated. In fact, he swore; anathamatized like Peter Bell of old. Discovering the Doctor, our young tumbler halted, when the following colloquy occurred:

Doctor—Why, little boy, I am surprised and pained to hear such words coming from so small a boy. Were you taught to swear at home?

Boy—No, Sir. I was raised in Ohio, and my mother always told me not to swear, drink, gamble or steal. That was pretty good advice, wasn't it, Captain?

Doctor—Yes that was right; but why don't you heed the advice?

Boy—Fact is, I'm with this 'ere circus, and our fellers swear like h—l all the while. I don't know whether they mean anything by it, or not; but hearing them so much, I've got into the habit. But what are you doing here; where do you live?

Doctor—Oh, I've no regular place to stay, but manage to get in somewhere.

Boy—That's too bad; you're such an old man. Have you got any family?

Doctor—Yes, a large one.

Boy—Where are they?

Doctor—Scattered all over the world.

Boy—That's a big piece of ground on which to have one's family. How old are ye?

Doctor—Sixty-seven.

Boy—Aint none of yer children ter hum so'st to take keer of ye?

Doctor—No, they are married and scattered about.

Boy—(putting his hand in his pocket and fumbling about) Now, see 'ere; I'm a young man, and you are old. I can get along without it; can earn more; in fact, have got more; and you take this 'ere five cents. It may help ye, and I shan't miss it.

Doctor—No, thank you; I've plenty for what I need.

Boy—Don't have any feelings about taking it; just as well have it as not; and every little helps. I may be out of cash myself some day; and five cents is better ter have than none.

Doctor—No, thank you, my young lad. All I want is, that you should stop swearing, and do as your mother told you.

Boy—Well, if you wont take it, I'm sorry. I'm goin' ter leave the circus business this fall, and go home.

Doctor—That's right; but what do you do in the circus?

Boy—Oh, turn handsprings, summersaults, etc.

Doctor—How do you do it?

Boy—Oh, this way; and away went the little tumbler along the dusty lane, turning all sorts of springs, and getting into many more positions, perhaps, than he ever had before. At this juncture, a second boy came along, and our little circus boy left the Doctor, to catch his little pony.

ADVERTISING.—The BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN has a larger circulation than any other Republican paper published in the county. Our merchants and business men will please make a note of this.

ARE YOU WORKING?

We ask, in all seriousness, if the members of the Republican party in Centre county are doing their whole duty as the exigencies of the campaign require?

Have the township committees exhibited that energy and discretion—that ceaseless and untiring activity, the interests and the occasion demand?

We talk plainly.

Have you done anything?

Have you yet prepared lists of the doubtful voters in your townships?

Have you examined the Assessor's books, and are you ready to challenge the spurious voters?

Have you placed in the hands of the doubtful such proof of democratic venality as will leave them in no doubt of what is their duty?

Do you know that you can get the precise documents required by applying to the efficient Chairman of the Republican County Committee, John T. Johnson, Bellefonte?

Knowing this, have you secured these pamphlets, and

Have you circulated them, or are they safely stowed away in some pigeon hole until after we lose by your carelessness?

Are you using your personal influence and best efforts to elect the entire Republican ticket?

Have you arranged for local meetings, and secured such talent as may be had for the asking?

Are you in correspondence with the Chairman of the County Committee?

Or are you waiting for "some one else to act?"

Have you placed tickets in the hands of the right men?

Have you hitched up your horse and driven a square to see a doubtful voter?

Are you aware that the democrats are trying to lull you into criminal apathy, trusting, thereby, that you will lose the victory by default?

Do you know that they are not leaving one stone unturned—one lie unrehearsed—one fact unbelied—one Republican candidate unbeslimed—one penny of Packer's sweat-money unappropriated, or one string unpulled, night or day, to defeat you?

This is truth; and if you expect to wrest this county from democratic domination, you must

The success of the Democracy this year commits the State to repudiation, free-trade and unbridled corruption.

We beseech Republicans to be on the alert.

Meet the enemy right in front.

Don't shirk, another day.

Gird up your loins, and, with the glorious banner unfurled, of Protection, Loyalty, Geary and the Right, press on over the corrupt body of effete, disloyal and detestable Democracy.

The Packer Sweat Fund---Fall in for Rations.

Asa Packer's check for seven hundred dollars was received, as we learn from private Democratic sources, in this city, on Friday last, and as late as Monday morning had lain untouched in the custody of the financial agent of the "Ring." In fact there was but one man among them upon whom the Ring could agree as stake-holder. A few of the youngsters have gone into the county to "instruct the people," and from now until the 12th of October, the "fur" will fly—sandwiched between greenback leaves. Two hundred dollars will be expended in Pennsvalley, and Fred. Kraut has been detailed to ride the "circuit" South of Nittany mountain, to discover the weak points. It is thought the weakest point along the line will be from Half Moon to the Union county line!

Seven hundred dollars, plus Moyer's $300 (just the sum he appropriated from the school fund), makes an even $1000, and this ought to carry the county. Mutchler, in his note accompanying the "fund," takes occasion to express his "regrets at the dissatisfaction existing in—Centre county," and wants to know "who, and what character of man that singing master, Moyer, is?" We modestly suggest that a few files of the REPUBLICAN, mailed to Mr. Mutchler, would obviate an embarrassing correspondence on the part of our Democratic county committee.

As near as we can "mathematics" this fund conundrum, the sum now in hands is equal to about 37½ cents to each Democratic voter. Three big drinks and a "pony," It will be advisable for the country Democrats to "draw" on the Treasurer as soon as possible. Judge Hosterman will be entitled to a sum sufficient to indemnify himself for late losses sustained by him. Ready, draw.

Moyer, the Rough.

One by one the facts in the life of Moyer, alias Meyer, the Rough, are being bro't to light, and the true character of this "figure head" of the Democratic ticket appears in all its mottled hideousness. We have now to chronicle this lamb like professor of Christianity in the character of a Rough! In the summer of 1864, while he was Superintendent of the Aaronsburg Sabbath School, Mr. Thomas G. Erhart was Assistant Superintendent. Moyer was, at the same time, President of that "ile" company, and Erhart was Secretary. At one of the private meetings of that celebrated company, whose existence the "little dutch villain" of the Noserag once denied and afterwards admitted its existence and his own complicity, a little "onpleasantness" arose between President Moyer and his Secretary.—The mild communicant and professor of things unfelt—the moral and model instructor of children in the ways of righteousness and peace—this devotional chanter of His praises, reached his arm across an intervening table, and with an arm strengthened by religious fervor, and a grip augmented by a merciful fellow-feeling, grasped his religious co-laborer by the throat and choked him!

Let us have Peace.

We suggest that Mr. Wm. Political Murder.

The Party Press Defend the "Republican's" Theory.

Truth Vindicated by the Official Record.

What Say'st, Workingmen's Murderers?

In our issue of the 15th, we presented, to thinking men, the "brief" embracing the most damaging "items" contained in our "Bill of Murder" filed against the National party of Crime, Blood and Assassination. The jovial and more sportive details of that record anterior to, and embracing the rebellion, we still judge sufficiently impressed upon the minds of our people to require no additional comment here.

Political animosity lighted the fires of burning homesteads in ravaged Kansas, and Orphan Asylums in New York, no more readily then, than it now penetrates the single avenue betwixt 108 brave men and God's free air, and throttles them while in full flush of manhood and buoyant hope. The same implacable enemy of free institutions and human rights confronting the harrassed liberty-lover in Kansas, last winter, in a Pennsylvania Legislature, defeated a humane bill introduced by a Republican Senator, for the better protection of the lives of ill fated miners!

The same political organization which has devoured the subsistence, and legislated away the rights of every workingman within its ranks, boldly placed itself on record in our State Senate in opposition to a measure simply declaring that additional safeguards sho'd be enforced for the protection of the lives of workingmen!!

Every Democratic Senator argued, connived and voted against that bill!!

Excepting three, every Republican Senator argued, labored and voted in favor of that bill.

The following is the vote as it appeared in the Legislative Record—Republicans in Roman; Democrats in Italics:

YEAS—Messrs. Billingfelt, Coleman, Connell, Errett, Fisher, Graham, Kerr, Olmsted, Robison, Taylor, White and Worthington, Speaker—12.

NAYS—Messrs. Beck, Burnett, Jackson, Linderman, Lowry, M'Candless, M'Intire, Nagle, Osterhout, Searight, Stutzman, Turner and Wallace—14.

The Senate of the Commonwealth is confessedly the representative body of the Legislative power of the State. It represents in a superlative degree, the intelligence and the political acumen of either party, and the action of its members concededly reflex the animus and intent of the party they represent.

Did Messrs. Beck, Burnett, Jackson, Linderman, M'Candless, M'Intire, Nagle, Searight, Turner and Wallace express in their votes on this humane bill, the sympathy and devotion of the Democratic party for the miners of Avondale?

If they did, well might the stricken widows and orphans at Avondale despair if their only hope of protection lay through the legislation of Democratic Senators!

Such protection and affection as the mountain wolf extends to the strayed lamb.

The original bill was prepared by Mr. Bannon, of Schuylkill county, and was passed against the earnest opposition of the Democratic representation from that county. It was originally intended that its provisions sho'd be applicable to the mines and miners of Schuylkill county only. When the bill was taken up upon its second reading in the Senate, Mr. Coleman, Rep., moved to strike out the word "county of Schuylkill." and insert in lieu thereof "State of Pennsylvania." The bill would then apply equally to all mines in the State, and especially to the extensive mines of Luzerne.—What said Senator Turner, the Democratic representative from Luzerne?

"I think that it is a little rough "treatment to Luzerne county to force "this bill upon them."

Democratic sympathy and devotion to the workingmen, with a vengeance!

Mr. Turner insisted that while it was eminently proper protection should be vouchsafed the miners of Schuylkill county, the "shafts and excavations in Luzerne were neither so deep or so extensive as to require additional safeguards."

What superlative devotion and loving kindness!!

"I trust a measure of this kind will "not be thrust upon Luzerne county, "and hope the amendment, covering "Luzerne county, will not be adopted."

What an unspeakable outburst of rapturous affection was this, for the devoted miner!!

But why continue this sickening record. In the light of the fearful [illegible]er at Avondale of 108 defense-[illegible]nd the moans and heart-[illegible] scores of bereaved wo-[illegible]ren, the record of that de-[illegible]tal vote which doomed [illegible]y atrocious.

The official record numbers the bill as "House bill No. 459, entitled an Act for the better regulation of mines, and for the protection of the lives of miners, in the county of Schuylkill."

The official record shows that Hon. P. Gray Meek voted against that bill!

The Legislative Record, the official organ of the State Legislature, gives the title, number and debate upon the passage of the bill.

The Bellefonte Watheman, whose Editor was a member of that Legislature, and voted against the bill, says no such bill was ever before the Legislature!!

Which lies?

Meek, of course!

Fred Kraut.

Fred Kraut was in town last Friday. He reports that he has canvassed Pennsvalley faithfully and finds much dissatisfaction. On his arrival he was immediately closeted with the Ring, and the subject of Judge Hosterman's loss in campaign stimulents was taken up. The following conversation ensued.

KRAUT—I suppose you've heard about that loss of whiskey the party sustained at the Judges! That REPUBLICAN is a perfect pest to me, and I expect Bill Brown will have this entire conversation in his next paper. My business over here to day was to ascertain whether this barrel of Stover's whiskey stolen from the Judges' barn where the Judge and I placed it on Saturday, is to be charged to us and deducted from our shar of the sweat money?

RING—Yes, but it will be put down to the lowest figure. The Ring don't expect or desire to make anything off you and your Dutchmen.

KRAUT—I think its pretty rough to have to pay for spilt milk. You see Love's Loop fellows got wind of it and thinking they might defeat Moyer by drinking up the whiskey, about 20 of the derned rascals came up on Sunday night and emptied the barrel, not leaving the Judge a morning dram or me the filled demijon I expected. And to add insult to injury they tacked this note over the bunghole.

JUDGES' BARN.
Sunday night, Sept. 19th.

Dear Judge: Don't feel hard about this whiskey. We don't do it to hurt you, but it might elect Moyer, and that Col. Love and we'uns wont stand. You'll find a quart bottle of it over the granary door. Tell Fred Kurtz to say it was some mean Republican. I saw McCracken down at the old Fort last night—lay it to him. We don't get such as this in the Loop or anywhere else very often. With your permission we'll take a little over to the Col. Hurriedly Yours,
LOVE'S GUARD.

Now gentlemen, that's the how of it, and I don't think it just the thing to have this barrel taken out of our share. If you'll replace it with another barrel, or even a half barrel, it will be all right.

RING—We cant send you another drop. We are all out. Sent the last gallon to Moyer yesterday. We didn't expect that he would want any, as he told us he could count on a hundred votes on account of his temperance principles, but some of the Democrats over there were getting a little shaky and we had to let it go. How much money are you going to need over there to get things into shape again?

KRAUT—(taking an old copy of the Reporter from his pocket and figuring upon its 4 inch margin) The lowest figure at which we can hope to carry Pennsvalley, as we ought, will be not less than $350, though perhaps $300 might do.

RING—300 fiddlesticks—we had thought you could go it without any of this fund. We gave you Dutchmen the head of the ticket and it seems to us you ought to spend your own money if any is necessary.

KRAUT—Well, we must have some—$250 or $200 at least. Can't do any thing with less than that. I promised over $300 on my trip last week.

RING—Can't do it Fred. We thought the whiskey would be about right, and had made other arrangements for using the money.

KRAUT—We must have $150 or $100, or lose the election. Coburn, Butts, and RashCadwallader, are gaining fearfully, and if you are prepared to see the whole ticket go up the spout, why, I cant help it.

RING—We must run this campaign economically. We are paying out too much money every day to genteel dead beats who don't own their own vote.

KRAUT—Well, gentlemen, I musn't go back without something. What do you say to $50.

RING—No—cant do it.

KRAUT—$25—$20—$18—$15. I won't take a cent less if nobody gets elected.

RING—Well, here's an X and we will see that your bill is paid at the Bush House. Now let's go and take "suthin'." Fred returned next day; and if Pennsvalley isn't straightened up now, it will be very queer.

WHEN the bill to save the lives of the Avondale miners was under consideration in the State Senate, Senator Turner, Democratic representative from Luzerne, rose in his place and asked what the bill meant, and what were its provisions?—When told it was designed to enforce better protection to miners, he bitterly opposed its passage, and "hoped it would not be forced upon Luzerne county."—What think you of that kind of protection to your interests, workingmen?

THE Philadelphia Age insists that Packer is respectable, because—he is worth $20,000,000, or, as some now allege, $12,000,000.

Moyer Ahead!

It is a sincere pleasure to gaze upon a picture of innocence, purity and blamelessness. It is a painful task to survey an image of guilt, culpability and sinfulness. What more exstatic than the one, or more repulsive than the other? And the contemplation of God's noblest work, an honest man, evokes a like sentiment of respect and admiration, while a sense of loathing and detestation fills the mind contemplating the man of guile, deceit, and "full of abomination."

The combined ingenuity of the politicians of Centre county, irrespective of party, could not have selected two characters more diametrically opposite in every thought, action, and belonging essential to true manhood and unimpeachable honesty, than the people of the county find in

James P. Coburn, the honest man, and

Jacob G. Moyer, the other man.

In all the relations of life, whether social or business, whether as opponent or confidential adviser—Mr. Coburn enjoys the unlimited respect and confidence of his friends, neighbors and townsmen. He has never compromised his dignity, honor, or manhood by covert and nefarious deeds for pelf and unlawful plunder.

He has never loaned himself to unscrupulous men for a price—that price the hard earned money of his confiding neighbors.

He walks among his fellows, conscious and proud in the genuine esteem reposed in him by those he never defrauded, belied or led astray.

He has given to church and charitable purposes with a liberal hand and unostentatiously.

He has advised and counseled the poor without price, and the rich with liberal fee.

He is the poor man's friend—the recipient of his confidence—the just and liberal neighbor—the true, upright and honest man

JAMES P. COBURN,

And the people know it.
They will testify to it Oct. 12th, and Prove it by his election
By an overwhelming
Majority!
Let us look at the other man,
Jacob G. Moyer,
Alias Meyer,
And his record,
It is a dark and forbidding record, and one that, in view of the possible contingency of his election to represent this county at Harrisburg, makes us shudder.

Is it an impossibility for the Democracy to select an honest man—an educated man—a high minded and honorable man to represent them?

Can no other man be found to head their ticket but

A knave,
A rogue,
A rascal,
A scoundrel,
A church imposter,
A neighbor-swindler,
A brother-robber,
A money thief.
A virtue seducer,
An oppressor of the poor, and
An aristocrat?

Our witnesses are

He will not vote for Jacob G. Moyer,

The next witness we offer, is a beggared brother, who was deceived, and most cruelly wronged by this detestable hyoperite.

He will not vote for Jacob G. Moyer,

Alias Meyer.

Next:

Every poor Democrat of Haines tp., whose money, to the school fund, was appropriated for a substitute for this slippery eel.

Scores of them will not vote for this chromatic nonentity.

Next:

Col. Wm. Love, who claims that he was defeated in the county Convention by a Convention packed by J. G. Moyer, who rode the whole night long in order to "fix" the delegates, at the same time telling Col. Love that he was not working for himself.

Alias Meyer,

Col. Love will not vote for
Jacob G. Moyer,
Alias Meyer.

Next:

Every resident of Pennsvalley who ever had dealings with the sanctimonious and hypocritical oiler—We wo'd like the name of one such he has not cheated, lied to, and deceived most cruelly. Just one.

How many farms has this man Moyer, alias Meyer, bought within the past two years? Other men in Pennsvalley, who work hard, are economical and shrewd, are not able to buy a new farm every six months! How comes it, then, that J. G. Moyer, alias Meyer, whom we never saw or heard of doing a days manual labor, can buy all these broad acres?

The workingmen would like to know where he gets the stamps.

We next call upon his father to say whether his son J. G. Moyer, alias Meyer, should be entitled to the votes of our citizens.

If his father, who is supposed to know him well, could say that

"Jacob never would work, but always preferred to sponge his living "out of other people, and never did "as he agreed by his neighbors," what may not our voters expect of him in an official capacity!

Down with the Hypocrite and Oily thief.

Up with the
Honest citizen and neighbor,
James P. Coburn.

Democracy vs. the L. C. & S. C. R. R.

Nearly two decades have passed since a railroad through Pennsvalley was first agitated. Other valleys, less favored in lay of land, wealth, extent of resources or advantages contingent upon the completion of a railroad, are now happily and prosperously in possession of one. Without enumerating or enlarging upon the various negative influences which have hitherto defeated the project, we wish briefly to speak of the present status of railroad matters in Pennsvalley.—At the railroad meeting in Millheim last August, the project was canvassed impartially, candidly, and was, in every sense, disconnected with the political questions now warmly agitating the country. The Lewisburg, Centre & Spruce Creek Railroad enterprise, and the success or defeat of political aspirants were as independent of each and the other as the poles. We doubt if the most heated partizan present at that meeting anticipated or desired any clashing between the railroad and political interests. The question was purely a matter of public enterprise, involving the material interests of one of our wealthiest and most prosperous valleys. Democrats and Republicans vied in their enthusiastic support of the enterprise

It was well known that James P. Coburn was then, as for many years past, a hearty and uncompromising advocate of the road. He had never faltered or lost heart, while others halted or abandoned the cause, but had steadily, and at all times, exerted his influence for its success. It was generally understood that Mr. Moyer was favorable to the project. He had never been, in any special manner, connected with, or zealous in the building of the road, yet it was thought his sympathies were favorable to it. He had carefully concealed his views, but it was believed his landed interests would compel his support, spite of adverse opinions or inherent penuriousness.

This was early in the campaign.

An eruption in the Democratic convention threw this unknown buckwheater into the political market, and whether he was meat, flour or tailings was beyond the ken of the shrewdest party leader. Now it appears that this politico-troubadour, shrewdly disguising his honest opinions, for political purposes, is, at heart, an anti-railroad man, and pledged to more than a score of men, privately to oppose the road prior to election, and openly thereafter!

When openly confronted, he gives a hesitating and lukewarm support, and only that through policy.

A portion of Mr. Moyer's possessions—the major portion, we understand—will be directly benefited by the building of the Lewisburg, Centre & Spruce Creek road.

Then wherefore Mr. Moyer's opposition?

Has the shrewd agent of a competing line, with a harvest of greenbacks in hand, been tampering with the figure head of Centre county Democracy? Does this supposition account for the milk in the cocoanut, when we think of the several valuable farms and mills Mr. Moyer has been able to purchase within the past few weeks?

Has the howling at Mr. Coburn, by the Democratic county press been directed by Mr. Moyer on the "stop-thief" plan? If any proof were lacking to satisfy those who care to know and be governed by facts, we ask if they are satisfied that our suggestions are true, when it is stated.

1. That strenuous effort is being made in Pennsvalley to secure the right of way, and subscription to stock for the building of the Lewisburg, Centre & Spruce Creek Railroad.

2. That in point of pecuniary interests arising from enhanced prices upon personal property and lands, Jacob G. Moyer will be benefited over Jas. P. Coburn as 12 is to 1.

3. That it will require the undivided effort of every resident of Pennsvalley to secure said right of way and stock.

4. That J. P. Coburn's name is spread upon the stock book for a sum equal to 36 per cent of his real property!

That Jacob G. Moyer's name does not appear upon the stock-books at all!

5. That Jacob G. Moyer refuses to sign one single penny for this all-important enterprise.

Why is it that Mr. Moyer should thus interpose his influence and example between the vast interests at stake, and his own sordid selfishness?

Why is it that Mr. William Wolf, Chairman of the Potter township committee, should decline to urge subscriptions unless it be that he has received his instructions from Moyer, who is vastly interested in Potter tp. lands?

Why is it that Gregg can give $50,000; Haines $10,000 or $15,000; Miles $50,000; Harris $70,000; Ferguson $60,000, and Potter tp., the richest of them all, appear upon the books in the paltry sum of 50 shares, unless it be that Mr. Wolf, having no landed estate, does the bidding of his master, Moyer, who is heavily interested in Potter?

Are the Democratic land holders in Pennsvalley prepared to hazard this enterprise in the hands of a man who refuses to exert his personal influence or give one penny in favor of this grand undertaking?

Is there a citizen in that valley who can tell us truthfully, he ever knew of Jacob G. Moyer's driving one mile—laboring one hour, or giving one penny for the building of the Lewisburg, Centre & Spruce Creek Railroad?

Out upon such false pretenses and shameless hypocrisy!

Vote for an out and out friend of the road—your interests, and those of your children.

Vote for James P. Coburn!

Felix Grundy.

Fred Kraut, of the Mountain Noserag, has a correspondent signing himself Felix Grundy, who hails from Aaronsburg. Felix, next to crazy Stine, is the most witless witling in Pennsvalley. For a while we attributed the articles to Stine, but that gentleman indignantly denies their authorship. Stine says he writes most of Krauts' editorials, but that neither his early religious training or reverence for common sense would permit him to Felix Grundyize. Furthermore, Stine says Felix Grundy is "fooler" than he is; that he is a shatter-brained ninny; senseless liar; sappy dolt; muddy-headed driveller; multitudinous puppy, and that Felix Grundy's real name is Fred. Kraut, alias Kurtz.

We believe poor Stine. Whenever Krauts' seared conscience will not permit him to father some knavish lie, more infamous than the Noserag's editorial columns usually admit, Kraut pulls the switch, and away goes the thowderish mess of billingsgate, jargon, rant, dutch fustian and Noserag platitudes, until the out house offal of the "little Dutch villains's" brains (?) run dry, and Kraut writes "Felix Grundy" underneath it all.

Such is Felix Grundy, Fred. Kraut and Fame.

The Last Day.

Let every Republican in this county remember that a failure to register between this time and Saturday night, Oct. 2nd, will doubtless result in his losing a vote. If you don't care whether your party succeeds at the next election—if you are willing the corrupt party of crime and venality should longer reign in old Centre—if you have received any of Packer's sweat money, we beg of you not to register.

If you care for the interests of your county and Commonwealth—prefer an honest administration of local and State finances—are anxious to avoid a railroad monopoly that will freeze every poor man in the State, then fail not to

REGISTER THIS WEEK, AND
Work until sundown, Oct. 12th.

CONSISTENCY, thou art a jewel. About the "consistentest" inland newspaper scribbler we wot of is Fred Kraut—the king Schmier Kase editor of Pennsvalley. On the 3d inst., he denied the existence of a swindling oil company with J. G. Moyer, alias Meyer, at its head, and on the 17th, admits our charge and says he was a member of it!! We suspect. Fred secured some of that Stover whiskey.

PACKER is one of that class of men who affiliated with the slaveholders [see his public record]. In that affiliation he impliedly believed and declared that "CAPITAL SHOULD OWN LABOR." That means, NO RESPECT FOR THE LABORING MAN! Who has ever heard of Mr. Packer changing his views on this subject?

THE Watchman crows over the late election. We must admit the Democrats hold their own in Vermont. They hadn't much to hold, but they held it spite of the wicked Republicans. The senate was unanimously Republican, last year, and the Democrats didn't lose a single member at the late election!

As an evidence that the Republican is the organ of the workingmen, we mention that we last week added forty-seven names to our list of subscribers, and save two, the entire number were hard-fisted mechanics and artizans. Hand in the names. We'll deal the bloated aristocrats and moneyed kings the blows they need.

NEW CHANGE IN AN OLD FIRM.
The undersigned adopts this method of informing his numerous friends and customers, that he has made arrangements to settle up the old books, and commence in the new. For thirty years I have done business in Bellefonte. I have for the whole of that time been one of the most extensive grain dealers in the place. I have always taken especial pains to accommodate my customers. I have always sold as good and as cheap goods as any other mercantile house in town, and it is my intention to continue to do so, but have added the name of my son W. S. WAGNER to the firm. Hereafter, or from the 12th inst., the business will be conducted in the firm name of
D. M. WAGNER AND SON.
I will increase the stock, will continue to buy grain, and to accomodate customers in every possible way. I invite all my old customers to continue with us and hope that the people of Centre, Clearfield and adjoining counties will find it to their advantage to deal with us.
D. M. WAGNER

We will in a few days receive from Phil'a and New York, the largest and best stock, and we may add, cheapest stock of Goods ever offered in Bellefonte. Our stock will be large and it is our intention to add to it from time to time. Every thing wanted by heads of families, farmers or others, will be found in our HOUSE. We are not only enlarging our stock but we have enlarged the STORE ROOM. Our store with the New room, will extend back 110 feet—shelved on both sides and constantly filled with the best of goods.
We most respectfully invite the people of Centre and adjoining counties to favor us with a call, and with their trade.
The highest market price will be paid for wheat and all other kinds of grain IN CASH. Country produce taken at the highest prices in exchange for goods.

JOB WORK.—Posters, Circulars, Bill Heads, Cards, Paper Books, Job Work of all kinds, neatly executed at the REPUBLICAN OFFICE, at reasonable rates.

"BECKIE HARRIS"—Your poems will appear next week.

CANS! CANS!—Fruit cans for sale, cheap, at Wetsler & Twitmires, Milesburg, Pa.

CHEAP.—Good and cheap fruit cans for sale at Milesburg, by Wetsler & Twitmire.

SAVE MONEY.—If you want posters, circulars, bill heads, cards, paper-books, first-class job work, plain or fancy, call at the REPUBLICAN office. All work done at Philadelphia prices.

THANKS.—A thoughtful friend in Potter tp. will accept our distinguished thanks for an "elaborate" box of juicy, ripe, luscious peaches and pears. We will give a more extended "verbal" notice.

READY FOR THE FAIR.—The irrepressible Hosterman, of the Cummings House, has made his will, cut off his last ration of coupons, and will be ready to receive visitors, callers, strangers or any man during the Fair or any other time

WE trust our friends will bear with us, and not criticise our leanness in "locals" until after the election, when we will do our "level best" in that direction; and, as usual, lead the column of county journals. Politics, like the measles, must have its run, and we shall have it bad for a couple of weeks. Be patient until after the 12th of October.

WHILE we are busy noting the iniquities and "peculiarities" of Democratic sinners, it is a pleasure to pick up our peace pencil and note the genial domestic surroundings, handsome "little ones," delightful home, and—now we come to it—"blessed" pears, wherewith our friend Wm. Kealsh, Esq., is bountifully provided. K., let Joe and Jerre continue the chapter.

FORGIVE HIM.—We trust our hotel friend, Russell, of Aaronsburg, will forgive the little lying villain of the Reporter for his malicious but natural lying concerning the senior Editor of this paper. Said Editor neither tastes, touches or handles the ardent—a fact quite as well known to the "little Dutch villain" as to everybody else. The lie in this case is of a piece with the other Munchausenisms of that puerile sheet.

BIG POTATOES.—Mr. Henry Pennington of Potter tp., recently presented us with 28 Mammoth potatoes which filled a half bushel measure rounded up. We believe Mr. Pennington is, thus far, ahead of all competitors.

Mr. David Rothrock, of spring tp., also presented us with an immense murphy weighing 22 oz! Thanks, gentleman, and may your "ground-fruit" increase in size and number every year.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY produces perfect cures of the worst cases of CATARRH, "Cold in the Head," CORIZA and Catarrhal Headache, as hundreds of testimonials from well-known citizens and eminent physicians who have used it in their practice, abundantly testify. It is mild, pleasant and unirritating. The proprietor offers $500 for a case of Catarrh that he cannot cure. This Remedy sent to any address by mail on receipt of sixty cents. Address R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprietor, Buffalo, N. Y.

For sale by most Druggists everywhere.

R. R. MEETING AT BOALSBURG.—Another large and enthusiastic meeting was held in Boalsburg, on Saturday last.—S. H. Stover was chosen Chairman; S. Glasgow, and others, Vice Presidents, with Dr. C. P. W. Fisher as Secretary. Speeches were made by Messrs. A Boyd Hutchison, of the REPUBLICAN, Fortney and Blanchard. It was arranged to raise 5 per cent. of the value of real estate in Harris tp., as stock. This will amount to about $70,000. The meeting was harmonious, and the utmost interest was expressed on all sides in the completion of the road.

"HALLOA! Jerry, where did you get those nice Boots and Hat I saw you wear at church last Sunday?" "Why, I got them at Zimmerman's cheap cash store, where they keep everything that's nice. My sister Jane got the prettiest Dress pattern there I ever saw, and she said they had such beautiful slipper patterns for Christmas presents, Zephyrs, and everything you can think of, and so cheap."

The above is a specimen of hundreds of little dialogues, about "Zimmerman's store" that occur every day on the streets between friends who have been there.

HOW TO VOTE.—At the coming election there will be four different tickets voted. One will be headed "Judiciary" for Judge of the Supreme Court, one headed "State" for Governor, one headed "County" for Senator, Representative and the county ticket, and one headed "Township" or "Borough" for the township or borough tickets. Our friends in the various townships will find the whole very much simplified by having their township tickets printed. A couple dollars will pay for the tickets, and the trouble of writing will thereby be obviated, and the work of the election officers greatly facilitated. Let the nominations of township officers be made as soon as possible, at furthest by Saturday of the present week. Then let some one see to getting the tickets printed at once. This can be done by coming directly to this office, or sending by letter a list of the candidates, and the number of tickets wanted, and we will print them and send back by return mail. Let our friends in every part of the county see to these things without delay.

County Correspondence.

CENTRE HALL, Sept. 27, '69.

Local affairs are decidedly under the weather. The items, "fenny and foul," or "better as good," fly high, with little disposition to alight within hailing distance. The cruel loss sustained by our worthy Judge, is really the only prime article fermenting in our midst, and even that is now non est. The loss is truly a party calamity. Kurtz, on his return from Bellefonte, last Saturday, convened a meeting at his office, and the result of his trip was made known. Perhaps it would be advisable to let the report of the gathering slip, for the present.

Fred has already divided up the $10 he received of the Ring, among the demimonde in the mountains, a Little of it here, and More of it there, to catch a stray, weak Democratic voter. The whiskey is gone, and with it went our spirits, of course. Kurtz blames the Judge; the Judge, in turn, blames Love; and Love, meanwhile, swears it's Moyer's doings, and it is becoming generally believed that Moyer has the lion's share. No other accident to report.

On Thursday last there was much flutter and dazzle at Potter's Mills among the fashionables. The day was magnificent, and old Sol fairly laughed as he shot his rays down among the foliage upon the bright, fresh throng assembled for the purpose of holding a S. S. celebration. The school presented a magnificent appearance as it marched along under the leadership of its Superintendent, Jos. Carson, the toilettes of the little ones having received great attention, and exhibiting exquisite taste. The elder sisters were "gotten up" regardless of expense. The music far excelled that usually afflicting celebrators, and the address of Rev. Mr. Hamil was listened to with interest and close attention. Following the address came marching to the bountifully filled tables. Here we found choicest groups of flowers, and tangled evergreens, delicious swaths of cakes, and the most wonderful of cone like pyramids, all attesting the luxurious taste of the ladies of Potter's Mills. The inner man satisfied, songs, chit chat and music followed, in agreeable succession, after which the bye-bye's were spoken, and another happy time passed down the "River of Time."

Among the most distinguished guests present were Rev. Rob't Hamil, Dr. W. F. Wilson and Hons. S. L. Barr, of Tyrone, Wm. Thompson, and others. In other than political times, we would write you more extendedly.

Special Notices.

BELLEFONTE, PA., Sept. 28, '69.

To our Patrons and the Public Generally:—

We hereby very respectfully give notice that on Monday, Oct. 4th 1869 our mode of doing business will be changed from a mixed credit and cash, to a strictly cash and produce system, and that on and after that date we will positively sell no goods whatever on credit.

Having tried the credit system for nearly three years, we found it both unpleasant and detrimental to ourselves and our customers, we have concluded to try the cash system, knowing that it will be beneficial to both parties, as it must be plain to everybody that goods sold for cash only can be sold cheaper than if sold on credit. We therefore propose to sell our goods cheaper than heretofore, and, as usual, to treat all who may give us a call as pleasantly as possible, promising to always have on hand a complete stock of the most desirable goods in the market.

Thanking you for your liberal patronage we give you a cordial invitation to continue the same.

Yours Very Respectfully

And wore out all their clothing.

From ocean unto ocean,
And we buy clothes from A. STERNBERG,
A most delightful notion.

WEDNESDAY MORNING Sept. 29. '69,

"Glorous Old Rosey."

Gen. Rosecrans briefly telegraphed to the Democratic authorities in Ohio that duty to his family and his creditors forbade his acceptance of the nomination for Governor. This dispatch has been supplemented by a letter in due course of mail, in which the General devotes two columns to a discussion of the Democratic situation. It is a trenchant composition, and goes far beyond John Quincy Adams, son, grandson and great-grandson, in the demand for a "new departure." What of old gave the Democratic party its prestige and spirit' General Rosecrans says.

"Was its profound faith in the capacity of man for self government and progress, under institutions based on the great principles of liberty, fraternity and equality before the law, and [illegible] in carrying the logic of its [illegible] ice arose that [illegible] progressive orig- [illegible] marked its history."

[illegible] one of the most graphic and [illegible]ful statements of what the Dem- [illegible]ratic party of to-day is not, that we have come across. The party that Rosecrans pictures was the party of Jefferson, Madison, and Jackson. The party of to day, under the leadership of Vallandigham, Pendleton, Jerry Black and Seymour, is its opposite in all the essential principles guaranteeing and protecting the rights of man.

Then listen to this. Fancy its being addressed to a Democratic Convention in Pennsylvania, or such audiences as Pendleton talks to in Ohio. Says the General:

"The country requires, and the Democratic party ought to be, a party of life of action and of progress. Fossils and fault-finders do not properly be long to the party, and if found in it ought to go on the retured list, leaving to its opponents, of all shades and grades, all narrow and sectional grounds, all monopolies and favoritism, based on class, creed, race, color or national origin. The Democratic party of the United States ought to hold high the banner of universal freedom, impartial justice and equality before the law, of all who live beneath the flag of our country."

Universal freedom, impartial justice and equality before the law, as Democratic symbols, would be the most stupendous joke of the day. Yet this is the Democratic General Rosecrans says he believes in and to which he is proud to belong. Who are his associates we would like to know. Certainly not the men who make platforms at Albany, Harrisburg, Columbus, Indianapolis or Springfield. It is evident the gospel, acording to Pendleton, has no favor with General Rosecrans. What would be more scathing than this denunciation of the quibbling greenback doctrine, remembering that it is addressed to Democrats:

"No local declarations inviting a popular prejudgment of any legal questions about the terms of payment of the national bonds should impair the priceless value of the public credit, at a time when it is all important to create the speediest means of ridding the country of these enormous oppressions; but every Democratic platform should tend to raise higher and higher the public credit, and to satisfy the people of Europe that the Democratic party is the last party in the United States that proposes to whine or act reluctantly about the payment of the public debt, even though its present holders should have bought it below its fair value."

What cutting sarcasm is here.—"Democratic platforms should tend to raise higher and higher the public credit," says General Rosecrans to the Ohio Democracy, whose constant labor it has been, and is now, to depreciate the public credit by sacrificing the national honor.

But the most unkindest' cut of all is the curt way Rosecrans dismissed the eleven stubborn jurors who may decline to acquiesce in his new departure. "Should there be Democrats," he says, "whose mental organization or temper does not permit them to recognize existing facts, or conform their action to great popular changes, let them, for the public good, abdicate the leadership, and leave the energies of the people free to act in the line of life and progress." This is sending the party to tophet with a vengeance.

CAMPBELL vs. Lacock (4 Wright, 448.) This was a case in which one of two partners (Getty & Geissinger) sold out his interest to the other, who agreed to pay all the debts of the firm. Lacock became security for Geissinger, the purchaser, for the performance of the contract. Campbell, a creditor of the firm, sued Lacock upon his guarantee. Judge Williams held that the plaintiff could not maintain the action, and the Supreme Court affirmed the judgment on his opinion. Cannot we hear of one case from Mr. C. L. Pershing, of Cambria?

THE people should not forget that we never had a currency so convertible and sound as the greenbacks, that they were opposed by the Democrats from the first, and that if the Democracy succeed, we shall be thrown back upon the shinplaster and wildcat notes by which labor was taxed and plundered in every State in the Union.

REPUBLICANISM has become the synonym for economy, and that of Democracy for extravagance. No better evidence of this can be found than [illegible] of the State and National

"GRANDFATHERS' STOVE."

Our grandfather's stove, what a funny old thing,
So deep, so wide and so tall;
Now the people would say, who are stylish and gay,
"It was only a hole in the wall."

It matters not what, it was pleasant to see
When night's mantle was flung over all;
Grandfather take down his good book and read
By the light from the hole in the wall.

As the sturdy young men rolled in the great logs,
They would laugh at each wintry squall,
Whilst grandma would sit on her old chair and knit
By the light from the whole in the wall.

The girls then wore home spun, and so did their beaux's,
For pride was a principle small;
And courting was done and hearts have been won
By the light from the hole in the wall.

The neighbors were friendly wherever they'd meet,
With a word of true kindness for all;
And joy was complete to hear voices so sweet
Ring round that old hole in the wall.

In those days we know, folks cared not for show,
Of improvements knew nothing at all;
But 'twas really no joke, when great clouds of smoke
Rushed out from the hole in the wall.

But those days are now o'er, we shall know them no more,
And all those old fashions have flown;
Whilst the solems and gay are coming each day
To purchase the famous "OLD HOME."

Coming not only in couples, but in scores, as hundreds of good and wise men and women have done before, to look upon this magnificent store, which is acknowledged to be the best cooking stove of the age. Remember the place,

This INFAILIBLE REMEDY does not, like the poisonous irritating snuffs and strong caustic solutions with which the people have long been humbugged, simply palliate for a short time, or drive the disease to the lungs, as there is danger of doing in the use of such nostrums, but it produces PERFECT AND PERMANENT CURES OF THE WORST CASES OF CHRONIC CATARRH, as thousands can testify. "COLD IN THE HEAD" is cured with a few applications. CATARRHAL HEADACHE is relieved and cured as if by magic. It removes offensive Breath, Loss or Impairment of the sense of taste, smell or hearing, Watering or Weak Eyes, and Impaired Memory, when caused by the violence of Catarrh, as they all frequently are. We offer in good faith a standing reward of $500 for a case of Catarrh that we cannot cure.

FOR SALE BY MOST DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.

PRICE ONLY FIFTY CENTS.

Ask your druggist for the REMEDY, but if he has not yet got it on sale, don't be put off by accepting any miserable worse than worthless substitute, but enclose sixty cents to me, and the Remedy will be sent you post paid. Four packages $2,00, or one dozen for $5,00. Send a two cent stamp for Dr. Sage's pamphlet on Catarrh. Address the Proprietor.

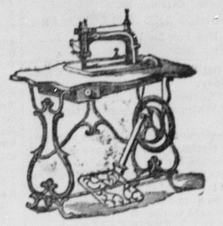
SEWING MACHINES.

AMERICAN BUTTON-HOLE

OVER-SEAMING AND SEWING MACHINE COMBINED.

MEDAL AWARDED AT THE PARIS EXPOSITION, 1867.



In directing attention to the celebrated COMBINATION BUTTON HOLE AND SEWING MACHINE, we feel fully warranted in claiming for it unquestionable superiority over all others as a Family Machine.—The Simplicity, Ease and Certainty with which it operates, as well as the uniform excellence of its work, certainly place it far in advance of any other similar invention of the age.

It is also the cheapest, intrinsically, as well as the best, since it is really two machines combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock Stitch or Button Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparatively noiseless, easily understood, and, in a word, it combines with those advantages exclusively its own the most desirable qualities of all others, for it not only does every variety of sewing in a SUPERIOR MANNER, but in addition OVERSEAMS splendidly and makes beautiful BUTTON and EYELET HOLES in all fabrics. This is far beyond the capacity of any other machine.

The SPLENDID MECHANISM of this Machine, and the superior skill workmanship and materials employed in its construction, are a guarantee of accuracy, strength and durability, and enable the company and its agents to Warrant Every Machine they sell to give entire satisfaction.

INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN ON THE MACHINE GRATUITOUSLY.

Lessons may be taken if desired with a view to test the Machine, or to become better acquainted with it before deciding to purchase. Samples of work will be furnished upon application at

SEWING MACHINE.

THE SINGER SEWING MACHINE.

Among sewing machines, those made by the Singer Manufacturing Company, rank with the highest. Their manufacturing machines, have long been known as the best for manufacturing purposes. But within the past few years, they have given special attention to the production of a

FAMILY MACHINE,

destined to win much favor in the

HOUSEHOLD.

The machine which they now offer is quiet light-running, simple, fast, noiseless. Its accessories for

HEMMING, BRAIDING, BINDING,

QUILTING, TUCKING, CORDING,

FELLING, GATHERING,

are simple and easily understood. Its delicate though enduring and tireless muscles of iron and steel, do all the work noiselessly, better, and few will deny, "Faster than hand can do it." They urge those wishing to purchase a machine, to examine all the other manufactures before buying, as it will, for itself, overcome all the objections to the other machines that can be brought against it. Machines on hand for sale and exhibition, together with a full and complete assortmet of

and all the accessories for the machines, by
